Breakfast

Thank you to Medline for starting Saturday out with breakfast and a blood-pumping dance in pink! The gowns and gloves were collected for donation after the session.

The ORNAC AGM

The ORNAC AGM introduced the incoming Executive and Provincial Directors, and thanked the out-going for their service, time, and dedication. The provinces of Newfoundland/Labrador and New Brunswick did not have nominations for Director, so 1-year appointments will be made for these positions. Due to a vacancy in the President-Elect position, Cathy Ferguson, Past-President, has stepped in to once again assume the Presidency. Thank you, Cathy!

During the AGM, we also learned of the work that has been done since the 2018 AGM in Richmond, BC regarding strategic planning, led by Lucia Pfeuti and Lyanne Faucher-Sinclair. Key initiatives and major themes were presented. Also mentioned was the new educational opportunities that will be available to ORNAC members on the website. Please log into the website for more and on-going information.

Gala

A wonderful time was had by all at the Mermaids and Pirates Gala. The food and music were terrific, the aquatic theme spectacularly depicted with an ongoing loop of undersea creatures on the big screens, and the costumes were
