

LORNE FLOWER MEMORIAL AWARD NOMINATION GUIDELINES

The Lorne Flower Memorial Award was established in 2003 on the initiative of Lorne's son, John Flower. The Award is presented each year of the National Conference, when there is an appropriate nominee. The Award recognizes a past or present ORNAC Board or Executive member who has made an outstanding contribution to ORNAC and to perioperative nursing in Canada. The recipient shall receive a monetary award from the Flower family, certificate and pin.

Please include information on your nominee in the following four sections, total length not to exceed 5 pages. Additional supporting pages/resume may be attached. Total points for each section may guide the emphasis you place in the nomination.

I. EDUCATION – not applicable for this Award

II. YEARS PARTICIPATION ON ORNAC BOARD / EXECUTIVE (15 points)

Provide dates (years) and terms of office on Executive (if applicable)

II. COMMITMENT/LEADERSHIP (70 points)

Comment on the nominee's participation / contributions to the ORNAC Board, including: committee participation / leadership (Chair); sharing of perioperative nursing / organization knowledge; major projects undertaken for ORNAC; other contributions such as documents prepared; presentations (list); and, publications regarding or on behalf of ORNAC (list).

Comment on the nominee's participation / contributions to the ORNAC Executive, including: Executive positions held; accomplishments during term of office on Executive; and, related activities undertaken during term on Executive.

Comment on the nature of the candidate's leadership qualities and how they contribute to excellence in the work of the ORNAC Board or Executive.

IV. OTHER ACTIVITIES (15 points)

Describe participation in national or international associations / organizations as ORNAC's representative, including roles, committee participation, presentation, etc.

Nominee profile, nomination form, and a minimum of two (2) letters of support must be completed by those nominating the candidate (without the knowledge of that candidate). The letters of support may follow the four nominee profile sections and should explain why the candidate is exceptional giving specific examples of how the nominee meets the criteria.

Nominee profile submission and letters of support must be typed, signed and dated.

NOTE: The name of the nominee must only appear on the cover page to ensure anonymity during review process (see next page).
